Jackson-Triggs Vidal Icewine '07 (Niagara, Can) $13.00 $24.00/187 ml
Since Jackson-Triggs vintners' inception in 1993, its Okanagan wines have been honored with many prestigious and notable awards. The list soars above most Canadian wineries with over 900 awards won to date - including more than 595 and 315 in International and Canadian competitions respectively. Jackson-Triggs is a stone's throw from another famous icewine house, Inniskillin, but without the pricetag! This richly textured wine displays fresh tropical aromas of papaya, mango and apricot. Bold fruit flavors balanced with fine acidity caress the palate and conclude with an exquisite silky finish. Previous vintages have been awarded: Grand Gold Medal, Vinitaly, Verona, Italy; Gold Medal, International Wine & Spirits Competition, London, UK; Gold Medal, Canadian Wine Awards, Penticton, B.C.
Chalet Debonné Vidal Icewine '08 (Ohio) $10.25 $36.50/375 ml
Mas Amiel Maury (Grenache) '07 (Roussillon) $8.25 $28.50/375 ml
Wine Advocate, June 2009—91 points
"Intense aromas of black raspberry and cherry preserves, mint, and licorice, lead to a pure-fruited and rich palate impression with refreshingly herbal accents, lots of vivacity, and impeccably judged sweetness that will permit its adaptation to a wide range of desserts as intended, yet keep it from being in the least cloying when enjoyed on its own. The style and vintage character seem to reinforce one another, and this should be worth cellaring for as much as 6-8 years, even though the overwhelming majority will be consumed while the wine still displays the vivid fruitiness for which this cuvee is known."

Cantillon Gueuze (5 ABV) (Belgium) (750 ml) $19.00
Before Lambic gets all fruity, it's known as Gueuze. The quintessential Belgian beer, Cantillon Gueuze is a perfect blend of one, two, and three year-old lambics. Tart and slightly acidic, Cantillon Gueuze is the real champagne of beers. It is fermented only with wild airborne yeasts from the Senne valley in Brussels and is aged in centuries-old oak casks. A true world classic that will thrill the true beer connoisseur.

Featured Pours

Chalet Debonné Reserve Chardonnay '07 (Ohio) $7.75 $26.00
Barrel fermentation and aging in toasted oak create the butterscotch aromas and complex, soft flavors of butter and vanilla.

Maysara 3° Pinot Noir '08 (Certified Biodynamic) (Ore) $9.00 $31.00
Three Degrees is a deep cherry color. The 2008 Pinot Noir has delicate, soft, and round tannins, with a core of dark cherries, blackberries, raspberries, red liquorices and a touch of nutmeg in the aromatics. In the beginning of the mouth there is a touch of white pepper and lush summer cherries that finishes off the palates. Three Degrees is Demeter Certified Biodynamic Wine, handcrafted by the three Montazi sisters whose differing personalities, combined with elegance, finesse and balance, reflect the dynamic characteristics of the Montaze Vineyard form which the fruit is sources. Extremely limited production: 3,000 cases.
